Hi, I'm You Yuan, currently a PhD student at the Asian School of the Environment, Nanyang Technological University (NTU), focusing on environmental and agricultural sustainability. I hold a Master's degree from Kyoto University and a Bachelor's degree from National Taiwan University, both in agriculture-related fields. With experience working in different industries and living across several countries, I've developed strong adaptability and an open mindset, which allow me to explore diverse environments and challenges effectively. I'm especially passionate about sustainable agriculture, circular bioeconomy, and regenerative systems areas where I hope to bridge research and practical applications. I'm always open to collaboration and exchanging ideas. Cheers!
